

DOING BUSINESS IN VIETNAM

VIETNAM TRADE OFFICE IN SINGAPORE (VTO)

VIETNAMESE ECONOMY TO RECOVER FAST THIS YEAR: UNDP REPRESENTATIVE

There are promising signs for Vietnam and its economic recovery this year, Caitlin Wiesen, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) representative in Vietnam has said.

In an interview granted to Vietnam Investment Review, the official also spoke highly of the Vietnamese Government’s efforts to put the security and safety of the people as a priority during the pandemic, especially the government’s leadership in the rapid and equitable deployment of COVID-19 vaccines.

(Continue reading on page 2)

May 2022

Focus

- * Vietnam business update and news regulations
- * Vietnam Energy Focus
- * Workshops and trade events
- * Special report and commentary

In this issue

- WB report: Viet Nam to benefit most from RCEP 4
- Digital transformation key to Vietnam's ambitions of getting rich and clean 6
- Vietnam has huge biomass power potential, but more incentives needed 8
- Project launched to help Vietnam spur energy efficiency 11

WB REPORT: VIET NAM TO BENEFIT MOST FROM RCEP

Viet Nam and Malaysia are the countries that are expected to benefit the most from the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP), according to a latest World Bank (WB) report. The WB stated that, the average trade weighted tariff imposed by Viet Nam declines from 0.8% to 0.2% while the tariffs

(Continue reading on page 4)