About us

Advanced Produce Centre Development Pte. Ltd. (APC) has its roots in Singapore as a private investment holding firm with a focus on advancing the food supply chain. We have specialised in planning and operation of fresh food wholesale centers. Over the past 20 years, APC has planned and operated several key agri-food product wholesale distribution centers in China (Shanghai, Beijing, Guangzhou, Anhui, Shenyang), the size of centers range from 6000 sqm to 350,000 sqm. We are also involved in optimising the operations of farms and marketplaces through food infrastructure enhancement, trade flow development, trade system innovation and specialised agri-food exchange services.

The World's First On-airport Perishables Auction Hub

sats

As from November 2019, APC and SATS (www.sats.com.sg) have jointly established the World's first On-airport Perishables Auction Hub in Singapore.

Leveraging on its strategic location in Asia and capitalizing on Singapore's extension of air-freight and sea-freight capabilities, the Singapore SATS APC Regional Perishables Auction Hub is located within Singapore Changi Airport Free Trade Zone with airside access, it is equipped with excellent logistics infrastructure and operation efficiency to service the flow of perishables trade in Asia.

With access to dedicated market networks into South East Asia, China and India, the Hub is in the position to serve perishables source countries to reach out to a greater Asian marketplace with specialized auction sales matching services speeding up transactions and boosting fair and transparent trade in perishables. Thus extending reach, reducing time and cost to market in a sustainable way!
